

News, 17.7.2019

The Ambassador Jukka Uolevi Pesola opened this year's cultural summer in Žihobce

The Ambassador Jukka Uolevi Pesola opened this year's cultural summer in Žihobce at the vernissages of Czech-Finnish artist, Mr. Petr Řehoř, and an artist, Mrs. Táňa Svatošová, at the Finnish Cultural Center Stella Polaris on Saturday 29 June 2019.

The Ambassador Jukka Uolevi Pesola opened this year's cultural summer in Žihobce at the vernissages of Czech-Finnish artist, Mr. Petr Řehoř, and an artist, Mrs. Táňa Svatošová, at the Finnish Cultural Center Stella Polaris on Saturday 29 June 2019. The cultural afternoon in the picturesque village of Žihobce began at 3:00 pm and guests had the opportunity to see the exhibitions Fragments and Floating Landscape, and to talk to the authors of as well as the Ambassador. The whole afternoon with a large attendance of the visitors of the exhibitions was in a very friendly atmosphere, which was supported by the organizers of the whole event, Mr. and Mrs. Froulík and Mr. and Mrs. Seppälä, and by the management of Žihobce, represented by the Mayor, Mr. Chalupka, the Deputy Mayor, Mr. Danda and the Director of local museum Mrs. Kočí.

Finland Abroad is a website provided by the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland and Finland's missions abroad.
